

Trips and Tours

Penguin Parade: Saturday 6 September, 2008

- Hand feed kangaroos
- Up close with koalas
- Cuddle a wombat
- Delicious pizza dinner
- Coastal beach walks/swimming
- Visit the Penguin Parade's award winning visitor centre
- Sunset at the Penguin Parade

Enjoy lunch (at your own expense) at a wildlife park before meeting some furry Australian favourites. Cuddle a baby wombat, hand feed the kangaroos and get up close and friendly with koalas and other native wildlife. Travel over the bridge and onto Phillip Island, known for its natural beauty, sandy beaches, rugged cliffs and unique wildlife experiences.

Take a tranquil coastal walk. Check out the giant surf at Woolamai Beach. Stroll the Nobbies boardwalk to view the majestic rocky coast, home to a colony of fur seals. Enjoy your pizza dinner and then on to the Penguin Parade. View the award winning visitor centre and as the sun fades witness the world's littlest penguins emerge from the sea and waddle ashore. It's a truly magical and unforgettable experience.

Tour includes: Pizza dinner, National Park entry fees, Entrance to Penguin Parade, Entrance to Wildlife Park
